2. a. The caserne on Ilberstaedterstrasse, BERNBURG, was occupied to capacity by artillery units of about 1,100 troops on 9 December 1949. The units were said to be one AT artillery regiment with eight to ten batteries, one or two battalions of a field artillery regiment and one or two regimental headquarters.

(1) About 40 artillery officers, including two colonels and one lieutenant colonel, were seen in the caserne area.

(2) AT guns of 50 to 76.2 mm caliber; short-barreled guns of 76.2 mm caliber and howitzers of 122 mm caliber were stored in the ordnance shops.

(3) Five blocked-up field kitchens and three other field kitchens coupled to trucks were seen beside the solid garage buildings.

Comment:

According to previous information, only the Adolf Hitler Kaserne, BERNBURG, was exclusively occupied by artillery units (AT and field artillery units). In previous reports, the Adolf Hitler Kaserne was also referred to as Kaserne at the cemetery, or Infanterie Kaserne, or Talstadt Kaserne or Kaserne on Silberstaedterstrasse. Para 2a of the report again confirms that most of the BERNBURG units are headquarters artillery units of the Third Shock Army, including elements of an AT artillery unit (3rd Gds AT Arty (orig ?)).
